

II.i

Banquo dreamt of the 3 weird sisters and noted that their predictions are coming true.

Macbeth says, "I think not of them."

Macbeth sees an imaginary bloody dagger that keeps moving away from him.

Hecate: Greek goddess of witchcraft

II.ii.

Lady Macbeth drugged the king's chamberlains/servants

Macbeth killed King Duncan, but forgot to place the daggers in the hands of his servants

These strange things were heard: owl scream, crickets cry, one cried "Murder!", "one cried "God bless us," one cried "Sleep no more! Macbeth does murder sleep!"

Lady Macbeth says he is going crazy and she takes the daggers to place them in the hands of the servants.

Lady Macbeth: "My hands are of your color, but I shame to wear a heart so white."

II.iii.

Porter is drunk and answers the door after someone knocked for a long period of time.

Macduff has come to see the King (Duncan) and is the first person to see him slain.

Macbeth is so upset (fake) that he kills the servants out of rage.

Duncan's sons, Malcolm and Donalbain, fear for their safety and leave the country. Malcolm flees to England and Donalbain goes to Ireland.

II.iv

Ross and the Old Man discuss these strange things that have been happening:

- 1.) It's daytime, but it's dark outside.
- 2.) An owl killed a falcon.
- 3.) Duncan's well-trained horses ate one another

Macduff informs them that Macbeth has been named King and will be crowned at Scone.

They discuss that Duncan's sons may have killed their father because they fled so quickly.
